PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the Supreme Council for Sport in Africa ("SCSA") was a specialist organ of the Organization of Africa Unity on matters relating to Sports Development in Africa. The African continent was divided into seven Sports Development Zones for administrative and organizational purposes. Ten members of Southern Africa, being Angola, Botswana, Lesotho, Malawi, Mozambique, Namibia, South Africa, Swaziland, Zambia and Zimbabwe fell in the SCSA Zone VI and the zone was thus known by that nomenclature ("SCSA Zone VI");

WHEREAS in November, 1998, the Council of Ministers met in Gaborone and agreed to establish a permanent SCSA Zone VI Secretariat in order to ensure effective administration and timeous implementation of programmes and decisions. In September 1999 during the Special meeting of the Council of Ministers held in Johannesburg, South Africa, the Republic of Botswana offered to host the Secretariat and the offer was unanimously accepted by the Council of Ministers. The SCSA Zone VI head office was therefore established in Gaborone, Botswana;

WHEREAS after reconsidering the role of sport in driving the agenda for sustainable development in Africa, the Heads of State and Government, during their Summit in Sirte Libya in 2007, resolved to charge the Ministers of sport with the mandate to revitalise and harmonise sport in line with the African Union ("AU") structures and agenda for sustainable development. The Ministers of Sport of the AU, at the 5th ordinary Session of the Conference of African Union Ministers of Sport ("CAMS") in Abidjan, Cote d'Ivoire held from 25 to 26 July 2013, under the theme “Harnessing the power of sport to contribute to the broader government development agenda” and in line with the 2007 Heads of State decision of Sirte Libya, committed to accelerate the implementation of the AU Policy Framework for Sustainable Development of Sport in Africa (2008-2018) and implementation of the new Architecture for Sport in Africa. To this end, the CAMS 5 made a decision to harmonize the SCSA into the AU structure under a new and similar organization called the African Union Sports Council ("AUSC") and to restructure and revitalize the SCSA Sports Development Zones in line with the five AU geographic regions;
WHEREAS the geographical distribution of the five (5) AU Sports Development Regions, as formally adopted by the African Union, is as follows:

i. AUSC Region 1: (Northern Africa, six (6) (member states): Algeria, Egypt, Libya, Mauritania, Tunisia and Saharawi Arab Democratic Republic;

ii. AUSC Region 2: West Africa fifteen (15) (Member States): Benin, Burkina Faso, Cape Verde, Cote d'Ivoire, Gambia, Ghana, Guinea Bissau, Liberia, Mali, Niger, Nigeria, Senegal, Sierra Leone and Togo;

iii. AUSC Region 3: (Central Africa, Nine (9) (Member States): Burundi, Cameroon, Central African republic, Chad, Congo democratic republic of Congo Equatorial Guinea, Gabon and Sao Tome and Principe;

iv. AUSC Region 4: East Africa, Thirteen (13) (Member States): Comoros, Djibouti, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Kenya, Madagascar, Mauritius, Rwanda, Seychelles, Somalia, Sudan, Tanzania and Uganda; and

v. AUSC Region 5: Southern Africa, Ten (10) (Member States): Angola, Botswana, Lesotho, Malawi, Mozambique, Namibia, South Africa, Swaziland, Zambia and Zimbabwe;

WHEREAS the AUSC is charged with the mandate of coordinating the Africa Sports Movement and serving as a forum for concerted action by Member States in the promotion and development of sport and initiating development through sport. The AUSC operates under the direction of its Statutes as approved by the Specialised Technical Committee for Ministers of Youth, Culture and Sport;

WHEREAS in line with the decision by CAMS 5 to harmonize and revitalize sport under the AU, the AUSC Region 5 (then SCSA Zone VI) Ministers of Sport at their ordinary session held on 8 November, 2013 in Bulawayo, Zimbabwe made a decision to change the nomenclature from SCSA Zone VI to AUSC Region 5 and to align its Constitution to the AUSC Statutes;
NOW, THEREFORE, the AUSC Region 5 has –

i. internally reached consensus on the terms and conditions which must be utilized to regulate the administration and governance of matters stemming from this Constitution;

ii. decided to reduce and express its consensus and the contents of the proposed Constitution to writing; and

iii. in the process of doing so, aligned the terms and conditions of this Constitution with the AUSC Statutes.

53.2 Member States may be requested to second staff to the Office of the AUSC Region 5.
53.3 Full time staff of the AUSC Region 5 work under the supervision of the Secretary-General.

ARTICLE 54: INDEPENDENCE OF MEMBER STATES AND CONFEDERATIONS

54.1 Except as provided for in this Constitution, the AUSC Region 5 may not interfere in the day to day administration and internal affairs of the Member States and Confederations in relation to sport.

ARTICLE 55: DISSOLUTION OF CONFEDERATIONS

55.1 A Confederation affiliated to the AUSC Region 5 is debarred from dissolving itself without prior consultation with and approval in writing of the Secretariat of the AUSC Region 5.

55.2 Any Confederation wishing to dissolve itself must submit its application in this regard for the written approval of the AUSC Region 5 to the Secretariat stating the reasons for the proposed dissolution, accompanied by the agenda and the minutes of the meeting at which the decision to dissolve the Confederation was taken.

55.3 All assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of a dissolved Confederation must be transferred and taken over by AUSC Region 5 and must be disposed of in accordance with the decision of the Council in writing after all liabilities and obligations of the dissolved Confederation have been settled.

55.4 The assets, rights, liabilities and obligations as contemplated in Article 55.3 shall vest in the AUSC Region 5 without formal transfer and without payment of any transfer duties, stamp duties, fees or taxes: Provided that—

55.4.1 the AUSC Region 5 must apply, control, manage and govern the assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of the dissolved Confederation in relation to the same or similar aims, objectives and functions of the dissolved Confederation; and 55.4.2 If the liabilities and obligations exceed the assets of a dissolved Confederation, the AUSC Region 5 shall be held accountable to control, manage and govern the affairs of the dissolved Confederation on behalf of it.

55.5. When the assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of a dissolved Confederation are transferred to the AUSC Region 5, the accounting officer of the dissolved Confederation must—

55.5.1 draw up an inventory of such assets, rights, liabilities and obligations; and

55.5.2 provide the AUSC Region 5 with such an inventory and any other substantiating records, including personnel records of staff to be transferred, if applicable.

55.6 Both the accounting officer of the dissolved Confederation and the AUSC Region 5 must sign the inventory when the transfer as contemplated in Article 55.3 takes place.

55.7 The Registrar of Deeds located in the Hosting Member State at the time of the transfer of the assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of a dissolved Confederation must make the necessary entries or endorsement for the transfer of any property as contemplated in Article 55.3.

ARTICLE 56: DISSOLUTION OF AUSC REGION 5

56.1 Member States wishing to dissolve AUSC Region 5 must—

56.1.1 notify the Secretariat of the AUSC Region 5 at least three (3) months before the next meeting of the Executive Committee; and

56.1.2 give written reasons for the proposed dissolution of the AUSC Region 5 to the Secretariat:
Provided that a proposal to dissolve the AUSC Region 5 must be –

56.1.2.1 made by at least three Member States in writing; and 56.1.2.2 signed by their respective Ministers.

56.2 The proposed dissolution by Member States must be examined and considered by the Executive Committee and if the latter is satisfied with its examination, it must submit its recommendations with regard to the proposal for the dissolution of the AUSC Region 5 to the Council for its final ruling in writing, subject to compliance and fulfillment of Article 56.3.

56.3 The AUSC Region 5 may only be dissolved if approved by two thirds (2/3) of the total membership of AUSC Region 5 in consultation with AUSC: Provided that the only approvals for the dissolution of the AUSC Region 5 to be taken into consideration in order to determine a two third (2/3) majority are those of full Ministers of their respective Member States.

56.4 In the event of the dissolution of AUSC Region 5, its assets and liabilities must be placed under the care of the Government of the Host Member State, pending an ultimate decision to be taken by the Council on the –

56.4.1 disposal of such assets and liabilities by the Minister of the Host Member State; and 56.4.2 replacement of the AUSC Region 5 with a new organisation by the Member States.

ARTICLE 57: FORCE MAJEURE

57.1 Region 5, through the Executive Committee, acts on cases of force majeure (unforeseen circumstances) not provided for in this Constitution for the furtherance of the aims and objects of Region 5.
57.2 The Executive Committee must submit to the subsequent meetings of the Council all major decisions or actions taken under clause 57.1 above for ratification.

ARTICLE 58: AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION OF AUSC REGION 5

58.1 Member States and Confederations wishing to submit amendments to the Constitution of the AUSC Region 5 must do so, in writing, to the Secretary-General at least sixty (60) days before the meeting of the Council at which proposals are to be tabled.

58.2 Proposed amendments to the Constitution of the AUSC Region 5 must be considered by the Executive Committee to determine whether they should be placed on the agenda of the subsequent meeting of the Council.

58.3 Amendments to the Constitution of the AUSC Region 5 shall only be valid if approved by two thirds (2/3) of the total membership of the AUSC Region 5 and shall come into effect on the dates to be determined by the Council.

ARTICLE 59: ARBITRATION

59.1 Any Member State, Confederation or its official may agree to refer for arbitration any existing or future differences between themselves to SADC as the arbitrator, granting to SADC the necessary power and authority to settle any matter which the said parties could not resolve: Provided that such an arbitration shall be subject to the jurisdiction and provisions of the applicable arbitration law of the Host Member State.

ARTICLE 60: APPLICATION OF CONSTITUTION OF AUSC REGION 5

60.1 The Constitution of the AUSC Region 5 must comply with the provisions of the Statutes of the AUSC: Provided that should there be any conflict between a provision of the Statutes of the AUSC and that of the Constitution, the Statutes of the AUSC shall always prevail if the conflict specifically relates to a matter dealt with in the Statutes.
60.2 The Constitution of the AUSC Region 5 shall always override the constitutions of Confederations: Provided that a Confederation must ensure that its constitution aligns with the provisions of the Constitution of the AUSC Region 5.

ARTICLE 61: REPEAL OF CONSTITUTION OF COUNCIL
61.1 Upon the adoption of this Constitution by the Council as contemplated in Article 64, all previous Constitutions of the Council are hereby repealed.

ARTICLE 62: REPEAL OF CONSTITUTION OF SUPREME COUNCIL FOR SPORT IN AFRICA ZONE VI
62.1 Upon the adoption of this Constitution by the Council as contemplated in Article 64, the current Constitution of the Supreme Council for Sport in Africa Zone VI is hereby repealed.
